27 Sept. 1968

Dear Harold,

Please excuse my handwriting. I was in a bad traffic accident last week. 10 stitches in my head, whiplash, lumbar pain, and a severe aggravation of my gout. My right hand is continually stiff and in pain — so I can't type. My handwriting is even worse because of it.

The Brosheers meeting was a fiasco, as expected. Enclosed find press story on it. Although I would have written the story differently, it is not so totally inaccurate as to be worthless. At the last minute, Brosheers asked me to speak & I couldn't get out of it gracefully. I did get him to identify me only as CC1 and not Garrison.

Because of the accident, I haven't been able to get to the local ADL yet. I have to run a short day and with school starting Monday things will be tough. I haven't forgotten & will do it as soon as I can.

I've tried to find the Innovator without success. It was evidently too small to be in research libraries. Someone borrowed my dictionary but when I get it, I'll ~~write~~ mail it to them.

All of your letters arrived today. By coincidence, I was thinking of having mail sent to my home this morning. The CCI is more and more becoming an effort by me alone. The P.O. Box was originally necessary but it is not so anymore. If you want, send all mail to my home →

As far as George Rennar goes, I suggest you will get better results from Edd Jeffords c/o CCI Box 222, Tacoma, Washington. George talks a lot & does nothing. The people here in L.A. were poorly impressed by him. Edd's a perfectly competent person.

I haven't been able to find Sali, although I haven't had the time to look into every cubbyhole.

The Newton-Cunningham deal is fascinating me. I didn't know it was declassified. If you get a negative reply, I'll find the father & ask him what he told the Feds. Maybe nothing. Maybe interesting.

I'll try to get the news clippings back + send them to you.

I'll check into the feasability of a UCLA speech the 1st of next week. That is the first week of classes + the first week I can find anyone. Let you know as soon as possible.

Last week, Gordon B. McLendon editorialized two days, each hour, against Jim. I wrote + asked for Barnes doctrine time and got it! I offered it to Jim but he declined so I'll do it for CCI. Only 150 words. But 7 stations.

Jim Lawrence as yet has not received Cong. It may come any day. I'm anxious to see it.

I gotta go now. Glad to hear you are taking it easy & resting a bit more. Hope to see you soon.

Best,

Steven J. Burton
